EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Bruce Harang on 7 October 2004.

2. The application has been amended as follows:

Claim 1 (presently amended) - Apparatus for the knotless connecting and disconnecting of sections of fly fishing lines in cooperative combination comprising :

a female component permanently attached to an end of a first fishing line and having an first ellipsoidal body having a bore therethrough at an acute angle to the first ellipsoidal body longitudinal axis, one end of said bore having a first contoured opening and the other end of said bore having a second contoured opening, a fusiform line mounting stem portion on the longitudinal axis on one end of said first ellipsoidal body, and a channel on the longitudinal axis of said first ellipsoidal body connecting one contoured opening to the other end of said first ellipsoidal body; and

a male component permanently attached to an end of a second fishing line and having an second ellipsoidal body dimensioned to fit within said bore in said female component and having a fusiform stem portion on the longitudinal axis at one end of said second ellipsoidal body, said

fusiform stem comprising a channel mating section proximal to said second ellipsoidal body and a line mounting portion distal to said second ellipsoidal body; thereby allowing the connection to, and disconnection from said fly fishing lines with one another.

Claims 2-9 (original)

a female component permanently attached to an end of a first fishing line and having an first ellipsoidal body having a bore therethrough at an acute angle to the first ellipsoidal body longitudinal axis, one end of said bore having a first contoured opening and the other end of said bore having a second contoured opening, a fusiform line mounting stem portion on the longitudinal axis on one end of said first ellipsoidal body said fusiform line mounting stem having a plurality of retaining nodes thereon, and a channel on the longitudinal axis of said first ellipsoidal body connecting one contoured opening to the other end of said first ellipsoidal body; and

a male component permanently attached to an end of a second fishing line and having an second ellipsoidal body dimensioned to fit within said bore in said female component and having a fusiform stem portion on the longitudinal axis at one end of said second ellipsoidal body, said fusiform stem comprising a channel mating section proximal to said second ellipsoidal body and a line mounting portion distal to said second ellipsoidal body and said fusiform line mounting stem distal portion having a plurality of retaining nodes thereon; thereby allowing the connection to, and disconnection from, said fly fishing lines with one another.

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: While the prior art made of record shows several line connectors, it fails to show a line connector having one female ellipsoidal body having a bore through it at an acute angle from the longitudinal axis, and a second male ellipsoidal body, each of the bodies having a stem portion on the longitudinal axis being fusiform or tapered in nature.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

4. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Susan C. Alimenti whose telephone number is 703-306-0360. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday-Friday, 9am-5pm.
